

Quizzes: Chapter 20

1. The ethical principle that measures the consequences of an act is referred to as _____.
- a. moral rules
 - b. utilization
 - c. social contract
 - d. none of the above

Correct Answer: (b)

2. The ethical principle that dictates that a decision should be made according to the universally accepted principles of morality is referred to as _____.
- a. moral rules
 - b. utilization
 - c. social contract
 - d. none of the above

Correct Answer: (a)

3. The ethical principle that dictates that an act is ethical when a majority of people in society agrees with it is referred to as _____.
- a. moral rules
 - b. utilization
 - c. social contract
 - d. none of the above

Correct Answer: (c)

4. Which of the following is considered an intellectual property?
- a. a trademark

- b. a trade secret
- c. a patent
- d. all of the above

Correct Answer: (d)

5. A company's product or service is identified as a _____.

- a. trade mark
- b. trade secret
- c. patent
- d. copyright

Correct Answer: (a)

6. A right to a written or created work is referred to as .

- a. trade mark
- b. trade secret
- c. patent
- d. copyright

Correct Answer: (d)

7. Information about a product is that is kept secret by the owner is referred to as a _____.

- a. trade mark
- b. trade secret
- c. patent
- d. copyright

Correct Answer: (b)

8. A right to a monopoly to use a piece of intellectual property is referred to as _____.

- a. trade mark
- b. trade secret
- c. patent
- d. copyright

Correct Answer: (c)

9. The attack that reduces the capability of a computer is called a _____ attack.

- a. penetration
- b. denial of service
- c. either a or b
- d. neither a nor b

Correct Answer: (b)

10. Sending a virus to a computer is called an _____ attack.

- a. penetration
- b. denial of service
- c. either a or b
- d. neither a nor b

Correct Answer: (a)